Riding for the Happiness of Others

www.rda.org.nz

Flicka, Kahlua, Harley, Biggles and Copper – some of the best teachers around. These horses are part of Riding for the Disabled Levin, and together with an enthusiastic group of volunteers, they teach coordination, independence and confidence.

Michelle Magee always rides Harley and her Mum, Lisa, says Harley is part of their family.

Lucan Gifford has been riding Kahlua for 18 months. His Mum Liz says he learns a sense of balance and an empathy for animals.

It took Diane Coombe 20 years to do something she's always wanted to do – work with horses. She's been volunteering at RDA for many years.

Why not become a volunteer with RDA. If you're reasonably fit and can commit to a regular morning per week, you're invited to learn more. You don't need to be a horsey person, or have experience with the disabled as training is given. Bring a friend and come and say hello on Thursday 15th April, 9.30am-10.30am, Kimberley Hospital, Kimberley Road, Levin
