

Part of Our Community

Every Tuesday morning the sound of singing can be heard coming from the Horowhenua Savage Club hall in Parker Avenue, Levin.

Inside you will find club members rehearsing... soloists, singing groups and instrumentalists getting ready for their next concert.

The Savage Club uses the many and varied talents of members to entertain at rest homes and other functions.

Anyone is welcome to join their choir and people who don't want to get up on a stage in front of an audience can sing just for the joy of it. It's a lot of fun and there's no pressure on anyone to perform.

The Horowhenua group was formed in 1963 and is one of 24 around the country which are still going strong.

Next year a celebration to mark their 50th anniversary is planned.

The first Savage Club was founded in London in 1857 by a group of artists, poets, playwrights and musicians and named after 18th Century poet and playwright Richard Savage.
