Levin Group of Riding for the Disabled

Levin Group of Riding for the Disabled was established in 1981 by local lady Ann Smith who believed riding horses would be valuable therapy for disabled people. The group operated from the Levin A.P. & I Showgrounds, moving to Speldhurst (Kimberley) in 1986 where it remains today.

The Levin group is a member of New Zealand Riding for the Disabled branch of the global organisation of Riding for the Disabled of which Princess Anne is the patron. Riders attending sessions at the Levin centre range in age from 3 to over 60 and come from Kapiti to Manawatu. Through their sessions at RDA they gain skills, strength and confidence that carries over to their daily lives.

Weather permitting, Levin Group of Riding for the Disabled runs sessions on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday from 8am until 1pm, at the purpose built arena within the grounds of Speldhurst Country Estate, 70 Kimberley Road, Levin.

To help meet the commitments to riders and their families, some of the RDA mounts are sponsored. Sponsorship money

Volunteers are always needed, you don't have to be horsey but it can help. Volunteers can be involved in administration, maintenance and cleaning or the Group's fundraising and publicity programmes. Interested volunteers have the opportunity to complete nationally recognised NZRDA coaching qualifications.

If you're over 14, open to a police check, have a vision to change lives and would enjoy working alongside people and horses, Levin Group RDA would love to meet you. On the job training is given to enable volunteers to become valuable member of the team. It will possibly be one of the most rewarding roles you ever do.
