Children's Day

"Children need to know they are special and important."

Fairfield School Kapa Haka group will be part of the day's wonderful entertainment line-up. Other groups and activities include a pre-school tent; sack, three-legged, and egg and spoon races; ripper rugby - 10.15am; hip hop workshops - 10.30am; Waiopahu College Barbershop; and college talent and bands (from 12pm). Bring along a picnic.

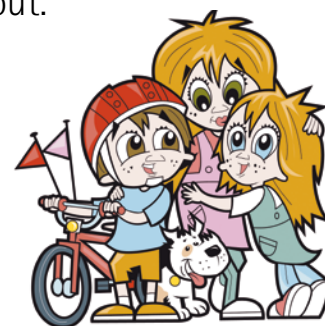

Help celebrate national Children's Day this Sunday with a free, fun family day out.

"By having fun with my kids in a sack race, where they see me fall over and laugh, my kids get to see a different side of their Dad - a fun side."

"A bit of time and effort today, will set the scene for tomorrow's children."

This celebration of Children's Day is the combined effort of many parts of the community.
