

Caring For Our Community

El Rancho is an all-year-round holiday park.

Some kids are transformed after a summer camp at El Rancho. They are exposed to immeasurable fun, connection with others, and leave with achievements and skills that they may have for the rest of their lives.

El Rancho Kids Summer Camps

"We are a resource and gift just waiting to be used."

Many kids who attend the camp have challenges at home and school. Programming and Events Director Leighton Cricks says many arrive closed off, not even wanting to smile. "They leave with their faces painted from activities, big smiles, and a lot more confidence. I love to see that," he says.
