

Part of Our Community

Christmas is just around the corner and with it the Salvation Army's annual treat for Levin families.

The Christmas Avenue of Trees, now in its fourth year, has become a popular event on the festival season calendar.

The display provides a family friendly opportunity for people in the community to take time out from the bustle of Christmas.

Oh, Christmas tree!

Sixty-five trees decorated by businesses and community groups fill the worship centre. It's a magical sight and visitors enjoy the inventiveness and humour of the tree decorators.

This a new experience for Levin Captains Ken and Denise Smith. They are looking forward to welcoming visitors and seeing them vote for their favourite tree.

In addition to its evening hours the display will be open from 1.30 – 4pm on Friday, December 14 for rest homes to visit.
