Horowhenua Supergrans

Life skills are something a lot of people take for granted. Others really struggle with the skills of everyday living. It may be something as simple as preparing a basic meal, or tidying a garden, to filling in forms, basic budgeting and parenting skills.

Supergrans Aotearoa (Inc) is a charitable, voluntary organisation helping people, free of charge, to help themselves. If there's a life skill you really want to master, Supergrans will do their best to source a volunteer able to show you.

Volunteers give their expertise free to anyone over school leaving age, no referral necessary.

Working one on one, in a client's own home or conducting group workshops, Supergrans can be Super granddads or don't have to be Grans at all. Volunteers are as varied, in age and background, as the people they mentor.

Horowhenua Supergrans is one of 7 branches nationally. If you think you could use the services of Supergrans, or would like to offer your expertise please contact the team at Horowhenua Supergrans Ph 06 3670680.
