ART FOR ALL

Levin Art Society was formed in 1949, and it has evolved considerably since then. In 2005 a small group of visionary members of the Society approached Horowhenua District Council for a space to create a community art hub. The Council made land available adjacent to the Public Gardens in Bath Street, with a challenge to raise funds to create a 'Gallery in the Park'. A challenge the now 'Horowhenua Art Society (Incorporated)', was up for.

Fundraising, community support, community grants and three years later the new custom-built, future-proofed art centre officially opened the doors in April 2008.

The Society extends a warm welcome to people of all ages and stages who would like to join a social network of like-minded people to draw and paint. The annual subscription of $40 gives members the chance to use the facilities and to learn from other members and visiting artists.

Established artists Neil Perfect and Dorothy Burt offer tuition in drawing and all-media.

The substantial Studio with full kitchen facilities, hosts regular art classes in all mediums, catering for complete beginners through to the most advanced. The facilities can be hired when available.

Attached to the Studio is a purpose built Gallery where members exhibit and sell their work. For the month of December the Society has a full exhibition at Te Takere, Levin showcasing the extraordinary talent of Horowhenua artists.
