EMPOWERING YOUR FUTURE

Volunteer Central

There's a saying "volunteers are not paid nothing because they're worthless, they are paid nothing because they're priceless".

Volunteer Central matches people seeking volunteer opportunities with organisations seeking volunteers. There is a huge variety of roles from tea-person, health shuttle driver, front of house with an environmental education organisation, to office administration and 100's more.

Volunteer Central works with a variety of organisations including local councils on initiatives to improve community health and connections. These include working with the Welcoming Communities Advisory Group, Older Persons Network forums and Refugee Resettlement.

The service extends from Horowhenua to Palmerston North taking in the Tararua and Manawatu region.

If you would like more information feel free to call in or call:

17 May and 6 September - Cuppa&Chat - Levin, Te Takere

14 July and 1 November - Cuppa&Chat - Foxton, Foxton Beach Community Centre

Contact: info@volunteercentral.nz

phone: 06 354 6027 or go to the website: www.volunteercentral.nz

Dedicated promotion days are held, as well as regular Cuppa&Chat sessions to enable potential volunteers to meet organisations looking for help.

The promotion days raise awareness of the services volunteers provide to the local community and the positive impact it brings on individuals, organisations, communities and the country. Every year Volunteer Central hosts a Recognition Event to celebrate volunteers' achievements and showcase the community's appreciation for everything they do.
